

McGregor on Damages

Widely regarded as the chief authority and the standard work on the law of damages for nearly 150 years, McGregor on Damages new 19th edition adopts a definition of damages, both simplified and enlarged, brought about by the changes in the law that have come about over the years. As ruled by The Court of Appeal in Simmons v Castle the best guidance on the heads of non-pecuniary loss recoverable are to be found in McGregor on Damages. NEW FOR THE 19th EDITION - The impact of the European Directive, implemented in the United Kingdom, on the damages to be awarded in our intellectual property statutory torts is analysed in detail. - How the revolutionary Peters v East Midlands SHA, with the Court of Appeal holding that an injured person has an absolute right to choose private care over state-funded care, has progressed is documented. - The virtual disappearance of Smith v Manchester awards on account of the new discounting criteria for contingencies of life in the Ogden Tables. - Omak Maritime v Mamola Shipping and Grange v Quinn have cast new light on a contracting party's right to claim for wasted expenditure, and the significance of the controversial Cullinane case is fully re-addressed. NEW CHAPTERS There are five new chapters, either new or by division of existing chapters including: - The Object Of An Award Of Compensatory Damages - Terminology used in Compensatory Damages Awards - Vindictory Damages - pushed into the limelight by the six to three decision of the Supreme Court in Lumba v Secretary of State for the Home Department. - Misfeasance In Public Office - Invasion of Privacy A primary reference tool on the general principles and the particular aspects of common law damages written by Harvey McGregor QC, an acknowledged authority for over 50 years, the book: - Provide comprehensive coverage of the law of damages, from detailed consideration of the general principles to specific heads of damages - Clarify complex areas such as loss of a chance, mitigation, causation and exemplary damages - Examine such issues as periodical payments and interest on damages - Go through statement of case, the trial and appeals - Consider damages in relation to particular contracts, tort and human rights: - Contracts -Sale of Goods, Hire and Hire-purchase of Goods, Sale of Land, Lease of Land.
