

Building a World-Class Compliance Program

Best Practices and Strategies for Success

Praise for Building A World-Class Compliance Program "The globalization of business and communications presents unprecedented opportunities for successful growth in many industries and for companies large and small. Conversely, the compliance challenges faced by businesses worldwide have never been more challenging. The urgency to develop a world-class compliance program has never been greater. This book is a must for all companies facing today and tomorrow's compliance challenge." -John Connors, Partner at Ignition Partners and former CFO, Microsoft Corporation "Unbiased, well researched, comprehensive, and interesting. A great resource for compliance professionals and a great read for CEOs, management, and board members who care about doing the right thing. I have been involved with the production of over 150 compliance articles, books, magazines, and newsletters, and Martin's work is among the best I have seen." -Roy Snell, CEO, Society of Corporate Compliance and Ethics "Martin slices through the confusion surrounding corporate compliance and offers not only useful guidelines, but a step-by-step approach to establishing an effective program. Building a World-Class Compliance Program is essential for anyone concerned with compliance and ethics within organizations." -James D. Ratley, CFE President, Association of Certified Fraud Examiners "Martin Biegelman, with strong contributions from Daniel Biegelman, provides businesspeople with an exceptionally important book in Building a World-Class Compliance Program: Best Practices and Strategies for Success. This book clearly demonstrates how value is added to companies who get it right in this vital aspect of business. Each chapter contains concrete examples of best practices ensuring compliance, backed by solid supporting examples. Together, they interview some of the best authorities in this field, and draw from Martin's experience as a federal law enforcement agent and executive." -Edward M. Stroz, Co-president of Stroz Friedberg, LLC, and former FBI special agent "Gone are the days when compliance programs were optional or companies could just have faith that none of their employees would go astray. Today's organizations need compliance programs and strategies in place. Martin Biegelman has written the consummate guide." -Joel Bartow, CFE, CPP, Director of Fraud Prevention and Investigations, Sitel Corporation
