The Letters and Charters of Cardinal Guala Bicchieri, Papal Legate in England 1216-1218

Letters and charters shed light on in England prior to and succeeding the death of king John. The legation of Guala Bicchieri of Vercelli, the third papal legate specifically appointed to England during the reign of King John, coincided with a turbulent period in England's history. Guala played a leading role in events, presiding over the resettlement of the English church after 1217, and is a figure of great importance in English political history. This volume assembles a comprehensive collection of his charters and letters. Dr NICHOLAS VINCENT teaches at Christ Church, Canterbury.
