

Blumenfeld-Jones

Ethics, Aesthetics, and Education

A Levinasian Approach

This book explores Levinas' phenomenology of ethical motivation. Levinas is grounded in "radical alterity", the knowledge that ethics exists only when we are fully separate from someone else, allowing us to experience connection with one another. In this book, the author locates this ethics in embodiment, emotions, and imaginations and explores the intersection of aesthetics and education.

This book explores Levinas' phenomenology of ethical motivation. Levinas is grounded in "radical alterity", the knowledge that ethics exists only when we are fully separate from someone else, allowing us to experience connection with one another. In this book, the author locates this ethics in embodiment, emotions, and imaginations and explores the intersection of aesthetics and education. Donald S. Blumenfeld-Jones specializes in aesthetics, curriculum theory, arts-based education research, and ethics. He founded ARTs (Arts-based Reflective Teaching), an elementary education teacher preparation program dedicated to aestheticizing the curriculum and making ethics central to both curriculum planning and teaching.

53,49 €

49,99 € (zzgl. MwSt.)

Lieferfrist: bis zu 10 Tage

Artikelnummer: 9781137556066

Medium: Buch

ISBN: 978-1-137-55606-6

Verlag: Springer Nature Singapore

Erscheinungstermin: 25.08.2016

Sprache(n): Englisch

Auflage: 2016. Auflage 2016

Serie: The Cultural and Social Foundations of Education

Produktform: Gebunden

Gewicht: 2788 g

Seiten: 119

Format (B x H): 156 x 219 mm

