

Media and Terrorism in the 21st Century

This publication features a collection of writings from international scholars on the many different aspects of media and terror relations. The chapters will explore key topics like new media, religion and terror, propaganda, counterterrorism strategies, and more from new perspectives. These emerging ideas are an ideal resource for students of IR and media/communications studies, scholars, academicians, researchers, professors, and every person interested in the intersection of security and media.
